

Miraculous Cure

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People

"I had been troubled with rheumatism all my life, even when a boy. It attacked me in the legs, arms and shoulders. The pain in the latter was particularly severe. I, of course, took medicine for it, but did not obtain permanent relief. One day about three years ago while reading a newspaper, I saw an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and determined to give them a trial. I had taken but three boxes of the pills when the trouble which had been my affliction from childhood, entirely disappeared."

"About a year later, I had another attack of rheumatism, which was brought on by working in a damp place. I remembered well what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People had done for me, so I immediately purchased some. Strangely enough just after a box again cured me, and I have been entirely free from rheumatism ever since. I have told a number of people about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and they have taken them with the most beneficial results."

BEST IN ALL THE WORLD!

Paine's Celery Compound the Product of Brains and Medical Experience.

After Years of Study and Application, This Greatest of All Remedies Was Given to Mankind by the Ablest of Modern Physicians --The Host of Worthless Imitators That Followed It.

When the greatest of modern physicians, after years of practice and close scientific study, gave to the science of medicine the most wonderful remedy of the present day, a host of imitators sprung up.

No sooner was it announced that a positive cure for nervous ailments, an unfailing blood purifier, had been discovered by Prof. Phelps of Dartmouth, and physicians everywhere welcomed Paine's Celery Compound as the most-to-be-desired discovery of a time when modern ways of working and living had begun to multiply diseases that arise from impaired nerves and impure blood.

When a great public demand arose for this remedy from one end of the country to another, at once, as in every such case, a lot of cheap fellows began to try to impose upon people one and another trade medicine, sometimes harmful, always worthless, claiming for them the unexampled properties of Paine's Celery compound.

Naturally, none of them ever succeeded. None of them ever will. Paine's Celery Compound made people well!

The aged and infirm found in it new and lasting strength. Thousands of women and men, tired out, run down, despondent, sick, suffering with insomnia, rheumatism, diseases of the kidneys, regained their health and strength, and buoyancy by the well-advised use of Paine's Celery Compound. As a great leader and writer in Boston publicly declared one day, Paine's Celery Compound had proven itself to be as much better than all the ordinary nervines, sarsaparillas, and trade preparations as the diamond is brighter than ordinary glass.

From thousands of grateful persons unsolicited testimonials began to pour in from those whom Paine's Celery Compound had benefited. The wealthy and the poor, the famous and the comparatively unknown, sent to the proprietors of the remedy, to the newspapers, to their physicians, to their friends, the glad news that here at last they had found a remedy that made them themselves again!

And the foolish fellows with their silly nostrums, starting up here and there every year, discovered as often as they tried it that, when a person's health is at stake, he or she will not be imposed upon. Paine's Celery Compound was in greater demand last year than the year before; the demand this spring is greater than for all the so-called spring remedies combined.

People insist upon having the one remedy that does them good, makes them strong, repairs their shattered strength. They call for Paine's Celery Compound!

The story of the life work of this great physician has been often told, and is familiar to most readers.

Prof. Phelps was born in Connecticut, and graduated from the military school at Norwich, Vt. He studied medicine with Prof. Nathan Smith of New Haven, Conn., and graduated in medicine at Yale.

His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont University. Next he was appointed lecturer on materia medica and medical botany in Dartmouth College. The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Prof. Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

Today Paine's Celery Compound stands without an equal for feeding exhausted nerves and building up the strength of the body. It cures radically and permanently. The nervous prostration and general debility from which thousands of women suffer so long that it finally gets to be a second nature with them—all this suffering and dependency can be very soon removed by properly feeding the nerves and replacing the unhealthy blood by a fresher, more highly vitalized fluid. A healthy increase in appetite and a corresponding gain in weight and good spirits follow the use of Paine's Celery Compound.

Paine's Celery Compound is the most remarkable medical achievement of the last fifty years.

It makes people well. It is the one true specific recognized and prescribed today by eminent practitioners for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. Prof. Phelps gave to his profession a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For all such complaints Paine's Celery Compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

It is as harmless as it is good, and it was the universal advice of the medical profession that the compound be placed where the general public could secure it, and thousands of people have year after year proven the wisdom of this good advice.

Only a truly great and effective remedy could continue, as Paine's Celery Compound has done, to hold its unrivaled place in the estimation of the ablest physicians and of the thousands of busy men and women whose only means of judging is from the actual results in their own home or among their friends. No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because none ever accomplished so much.
